TALLAHASSEE-Florida's un-TALLAHASSEE—Florida's under-developed counties are beginning to show signs of an industrial boom, the Florida Development
Commission reported to the Legislature last week.

The commission, during a pitch to retain sufficient funds in their budget to carry on the job of bring-ing industry to rural counties, said 120 new manufacturing plants and major expansions have been ob-tained for rural areas during the past 15 months.

Only 12 of the 49 rural counties failed to share in the new found prosperity. They were DeSoto, Flagler, Gilchrist, Glades, Hendry, Holmes, Jefferson, Leon, Liberty, Sumter, Suwannee and Union.

Pick your savings target and shoot straight for it!

 ${f A}$ home . . . financial security . . . a business of your own Important savings targets like these cost money—a substantial and more than most of us have. But here's a sure way for you to score a bull's-eye and walk off with the big prize

The secret of saving is system. And the simplest, most automatic saving system ever devised is the Payroll Savings Plan. Best of all, you do more than save through Payroll Savings. You invest your money, too, and make it grow. Here's how it wooks:

Tell your company pay office how much you want to save ch week. Then each pay period that amount will be put aside for you before you have a chance to spend it. Your money will automatically into U. S. Series E Savings Bonds.

d semiannually when held to maturity (9 years and 8 months) they're soon worth much more than you've invested in ther And your Bonds will continue to pay this same good interest as long as 19 years and 8 months. That means a return of up to 80% more than you originally paid.

And remember this, These's no guesswork or chi the Payroll Savings Plan. It's absolutely safe and sure. Invest just $7.50 a week. In 5 years you'll have Savings Bonds worth $2053 in cash; in 10 years, $4448.

Even if you've never been able to save before, this plan is guaranteed to work for you. So sign up today for Payroll Savings where you work—or invest in Bonds regularly where you bank.

Present treasury regulations make it possible for you to collect a return of as much as 80% on the Series E Savings Bonds you

For now those Bonds which you invested in 10 years ago can go right on earning interest for ten more years without your doing a thing about it! That is true not only of the Bonds win you have held for ten years, but any other: wries E Bonds which you have invested in in the meantime. And any Series E Bonds which you obtain now will also enjoy the ex-tended earning period. They will start earn-ng interest sooner and mature earlier, too, paying 3%, compounded semianmally.

The Bond you got for $18.75 can now pay you $33.67 . . . a $37.50 Bond will be worth $67.34 . . . and so on .

, any Series E Bond may still be redeemed at any time after you have held it for two months. But, like any other form of wing your Bonds will mean a great deal more to you if you can hold on to them:

Are you one of the millions of Americans who are saving regularly with Savings Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, why not start now? Invest regularly in Bonds through the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. Ask your pay office to save as little as 25c a week for you, or as much

If you can save just $5 a week regularly through the Plan, in five years you will have $1,367.90... in 9 years and 8 months, you? I have $2,850.70... and in 19 years and 8 months, $6,872.45! This Plan is one sure way to save because it saves something out of every check before you have a chance to spend it.

So join the Payroll Savings Plan where you work today. Or, if you are self-employed, start the Bond-A-Month Plan where you bank. It's safe, it's sure, it's automatic. And you will be helping yourself and your country! If you want to be paid nances were stable and would remain so.

"We are not broke," Green said.
Green said Monday the state's cash balance would be used up by August. After that, he said, the state would either have to stop paying, its bills or borrow the necessary money to keep it on a cash basis.

Money will be serecially short.

Money will be especially short during the lean tax collections months of the fall, and Green said 40 to 50-million dollars would be needed by January.

Collins, who has recommended the Legislature broaden the sales tax on packaged beer, wine and liguors and government contractors, said indications are, strong that additional income would be needed.

Mrs. Joe Cherry, Jr. New PTA Head Here

Mrs. Joe Cherry, Jr., was elected president of the Canal Point Parent-Teacher Association in a spec-ial election held during the final meeting of the current school year in the school auditorium Monday night, with Mrs. Gladys Harring-ton, retiring president presiding. Mrs. Cherry resigned as newly elected treasurer in order to ac-cept the presidency and Mrs. O. H. Sheppard was elected treasurer.

Sheppard was elected treasurer. Following the special election, the new offcers were inducted in an installation ecremony, conducted by Mrs. Amel George, president of the Palm Beach County PTA Council. In addition to Mrs. Cherry and Mrs. Sheppard, officers elected at the April meeting were installed, including Mrs. W. E. McCall, first vice president; Mrs. R. L. Glass Beads You See On The Highway TALLAHASSEE-The Florida recently purchased 400,000 pounds of tiny, reflective glass beads to increase traffic safety.

The State Road Department or-dered the microscopic pellets from the Cataphote Corporation of To-ledo, Ohio and Jackson, Miss' for ledo, Ohio and Jackson, Miss: ror traffic line paint on Florida high-ways. The beads are combined with point or plastic and are used for center or shoulder guide lines and for making pedestrian crossing boundaries. They are particularly effective at night, in fog, and in rain.

Engineers have found that 100 pounds of beads will reflectorize one stripe for one mile of highway, with 300 pounds required for both shoulders and the center. At 309 shoulders and the center. At 301 pounds per mile, the recent order will provide more than 1300 finles of highway with three stripes.

Tests have proven that such rarkings effect notable reductions in head-on collisions, side

swipings and off-the-roadway mis

Airlines Battle Over Night Rates

MIAMI—Eastern Air Lines, one of the five airlines that proposed to slash certain night coach fares, has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board to reconsider the proposed reduc-

Eastern officials said they were forced to file the new low rates for competitive reasons after National Airlines made the first filing March 20. Similar proposals, which would cut coach fares 25 per cent of Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights were filed by Northeast, Delta and Northwest airlines. Eastern called the proposed cuts unjust, unreasonable and unduly discriminatory.
